Wisconsin Chapter of Meeting Professionals International Hosts
Fall Education Day- Teach Me How To Meeting

MADISON, WI – The Wisconsin Chapter of Meeting Professionals International (MPI-WI) Education will be hosting its Fall Education Day, held on November 16th and 17th at The Alliant Energy Center in Madison, WI.

This action-packed, education-focused event tips-off with fabulous networking opportunities at a Wisconsin-themed reception. Thursday's line-up includes an exciting keynote address by Kristin Charles, PhD and thought-provoking breakouts, including two flashpoint sessions featuring eight fabulous speakers courtesy of NSA-WI. Attendees will also benefit from a networking lunch and an entertaining tradeshow.

Those unable to attend in person can take advantage of live web casts of two popular breakout sessions, one in the morning and another in the afternoon.

Meeting Professionals International (MPI), the meeting and event industry's largest and most vibrant global community helps our members thrive by providing human connections to knowledge and ideas, relationships, and marketplaces. MPI membership is comprised of more than 23,000 members belonging to 71 chapters and clubs worldwide. For a more information, visit mpiweb.org.

The 320+ member Wisconsin Chapter of MPI, established in 1977, is the premier association in the state dedicated to the growth, development and success of event and meeting professionals. The chapter brings professionals together to learn best practices, build relationships, and create business opportunities that enhance the strategic value of meetings.
