Wisconsin Chapter of Meeting Professionals International to Host Annual Golf Outing with Wisconsin Society of Association Executives on June 17

STEVENS POINT, WI - On June 16 & 17, the Wisconsin Chapter of Meeting Professionals International (MPI) and the Wisconsin Society of Association Executives (WSAE) will hold their annual golf outing at SentryWorld in Stevens Point, WI. The event will kick off on Thursday evening with an ideas exchange at the Holiday Inn Hotel and Convention Center. Following, the Stevens Point Area Convention and Visitors Bureau will host the opening reception with great food, company and entertainment.

On Thursday, the golfers will head to SentryWorld golf course with a shot-gun start at 9 a.m. For those non-golfers, they will enjoy a Taste-of-Point tour with a stop at the Point Brewery and a cooking demonstration with Chef Christian Czerwonka of Christian's Bistro. Following lunch, attendees will explore downtown Stevens Point with a trip to the Farmers Market, shopping and live music. All attendees will reunite for the closing reception at 2 p.m. at the Holiday Inn Hotel and Convention Center.

Established in 1972, Meeting Professionals International is the largest association for the meetings profession with more than 19,000 members in 66 chapters across the United States, Canada, Europe and other countries throughout the world. As the global authority and resource for the $122.3 billion meetings and events industry, MPI empowers meeting professionals to increase their strategic organizational value through education and networking opportunities.

MPI Wisconsin leads the meetings industry in Wisconsin through education. Members and non-members are invited to participate in learning the latest research and trends, leadership training, best practices, professional development and networking opportunities, which help its members enhance their professional value and define the strategic value of meetings within their respective organizations.
