Contracts, contracts, and social media legal issues! Are you protecting yourself and your company?

Stevens Point, WI – With so much emphasis placed on economic items such as room rates and attrition fees, do you focus on legal issues such as force majeure on contracts and do you and your organization know the legal risks that you are exposing yourself to while using social media? Join MPI Wisconsin as Naomi Angel, Esq. addresses all of this and so much more in her two lively sessions about contracts and the laws affecting emerging technology. This educational event will take place Thursday, October 17th at the Holiday Inn Hotel & Convention Center in Stevens Point. Come and join MPI Wisconsin for an informational look on protecting you and your company.

Naomi Angel, a partner with Howe & Hutton, Ltd., works with individuals and organizations in the meetings, travel, tourism, and hospitality industries. Additionally, she serves as General Counsel to national and international trade associations and professional societies, providing guidance in the areas of intellectual property, contracts, risk management, business continuity and disaster planning, governance, standards development, certification and accreditation, product liability, antitrust, and international organizational issues. Naomi has appeared before federal and state agencies and worked with national research laboratories, advocating positions on behalf of client associations. She has extensive commercial litigation experience at state and federal levels and is also a trained mediator.

Those interested in registering for this fascinating and informative event can visit mpiwi.org for more details.
